DragonFly Mentorship Programme

This programme helps young adults identify what they want to do with their lives and creates a step by step plan that helps them successfully transition into the labour market. Participants continue to build employment skills in math and literacy while also working on communication, organization and social interaction. DragonFly creates a personalized approach that supports each young adult to gain the skills, abilities and experiences that lead to good quality jobs.

Cost: $1500.00 +hst per term

DragonFly registration is a personalized process.
To register, please contact Barbara Roblin at 613-238-7838.
